Voice Mobility Continues to Expand its Distribution Network

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA – March 26, 2009 – Voice Mobility International, Inc. (TSX: VMY, OTCBB: VMII and FWB: VMY), a Vancouver-based developer and provider of carrier and enterprise messaging solutions, today announced a new distribution agreement with TRI-STAR Telecommunications.

TRI-STAR Telecommunications is a San Diego based telecommunication company serving Octel and Avaya customers since 1996. Backed by Messaging Professionals with over three decades of experience, TRI-STAR provides new and quality reconditioned telecommunications equipment and services provided by knowledgeable, friendly staff, with a reputation for superb customer service.

TRI-STAR is a distributor of state-of-the-art equipment including complete systems, line cards, and voice storage drives. They have a large customer base utilizing Octel®, VMX®, Definity®, and Merlin systems.

"TRI-STAR's product portfolio will benefit greatly from the addition of Voice Mobility's UCN 250 Octel replacement products and the Vmerge full unified communications product line," said Tim Keckeisen, President, TRI-STAR Telecommunications. "Our customer base requires flexible, low cost unified communications products. Voice Mobility's product line and very attractive channel program made our unified communications choice clear."

"We're very pleased to add TRI-STAR Telecommunications to our list of certified resellers for the UCN 250 and Vmerge product lines", said Mike Seeley, Voice Mobility's VP Sales. "In these tough economic times, we're very happy to provide solutions that our resellers can provide to their customers that save money and increase their employee's productivity. TRI-STAR is certified on both the Vmerge and the UCN 250 UC solutions."
